ALLEGATIONS:

On 28 Aug 12, at 0956 hours, Sgt. Thomas Linnane registered this complaint on behalf of the complainant, [REDACTED] with IPRA Intake Aide Lisa Tousant. The complainant, [REDACTED] alleged that on 28 Aug 12, at approximately 0810 hours, in the vicinity of [REDACTED] N. Oakley, Officer Joseph Warnke:

- 1) harassed her via telephone;
- 2) harassed her in that he followed her as she jogged in her neighborhood; and
- 3) violated a court order that prohibits him from being in the vicinity of her residence or to engage in an in-person conversation with her unless for the purpose of the pick-up or drop-off of their daughter, [REDACTED]

INVESTIGATION:

Sgt. Thomas Linnane submitted an Initiation Report and documented that he responded to [REDACTED] N. Milwaukee to a request for a supervisor. Ms. [REDACTED] explained to Sgt. Linnane that she was going through a divorce and on 28 Aug 12, at approximately 0830 hours, as she was jogging, Officer Warnke followed her for a period of time. Officer Warnke then engaged Ms. [REDACTED] in an argument that lasted for a period of time before she returned to her residence. Ms. [REDACTED] related to Sgt. Linnane that at this time she did not have an Order of Protection against Officer Warnke. (Att. 4)

In a statement with IPRA, [REDACTED] stated that she and Officer Joseph Warnke were married for five years and she has filed for a divorce. During the [REDACTED] marriage, [REDACTED] was born, and during this incident [REDACTED] was four years old. Ms. [REDACTED] further stated that on 28 Aug 12, at approximately 0810 hours, while home at [REDACTED] N. Milwaukee, she received a telephone call from Officer Warnke. Officer Warnke asked Ms. [REDACTED] to meet him before school at 1400 hours so they could talk. Ms. [REDACTED] told Officer Warnke that she did not want to meet with him and he began yelling at her. Ms. [REDACTED] then hung up the telephone and got ready for her morning run.

Ms. [REDACTED] went on her usual run path and when she turned the corner on Milwaukee onto Oakley, she observed Officer Warnke's black Chrysler Aspen SUV parked on the corner. Officer Warnke was standing outside of his vehicle and he began talking to Ms. [REDACTED]. Ms. [REDACTED] did not pay attention to what Officer Warnke said and merely told him there was nothing to talk about without lawyers. Ms. [REDACTED] then made a U-turn and ran back to her residence. Officer Warnke entered his vehicle and followed Ms. [REDACTED] for about a quarter of a block and stopped his vehicle. Officer Warnke yelled out to Ms. [REDACTED] to stop and talk to him and she responded that she would not. Officer Warnke responded in retort that she was acting like a child. Ms. [REDACTED] had her cell phone in her hand and when she told Officer Warnke that she was calling her lawyer, he drove away. Ms. [REDACTED] returned home and called for a supervisor to respond to her residence and a supervisor responded. Officer Warnke does not live in the neighborhood and has no reason to be in Ms. [REDACTED] neighborhood other than to pick-up or drop-off [REDACTED]. Ms. [REDACTED] wanted Officer Warnke to abide by the Court Order that he signed. (Att. 11)

The OEMC event query shows that on 28 Aug 12, at approximately 0841 hours, [REDACTED] called 911 and reported to the dispatcher that her estranged husband, who was a Chicago Police Officer, had been following her on her morning jog. Ms. [REDACTED]'s husband was in his black Chrysler. Ms. [REDACTED] told the dispatcher that she would wait in front for the police. Ms. [REDACTED] did not know if Officer Warnke was in possession of his firearm at this time. The dispatcher requested a supervisor respond to Ms. [REDACTED] residence because her husband was a Chicago Police Officer. (Att. 12)

A Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois Agreed Order stipulates in part that [REDACTED] is represented by attorney [REDACTED]. The order further stipulates to scheduled and random drug testing of both Ms. [REDACTED] and Officer Warnke. Officer Warnke's move from the marital residence is stipulated in the Order. Visitation and drop-off and pick-up of [REDACTED] made by Officer Warnke during the month of July were stipulated in the Order. The drop-off of [REDACTED] would be curbside at Ms. [REDACTED] residence. The Order also stipulates that the parties shall have communicated with each other via text message for issues that pertain to the minor child. The parties were ordered to limit their communication only to those matters and shall timely respond to all text messages regarding the child. The Order was entered on 13 Jul 12 by Judge Nancy Katz. (Att. 9)

A Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois Order stipulates in part and in rule number 5) neither party shall come to the other party's residence for any reason except for pick-up or drop-off [REDACTED]. The Court Order was entered on 29 Aug 12 by Judge Nancy Katz. (Att. 10)

Two drug test were administered to [REDACTED] on 22 Aug 12. The results of the drug test on 22 Aug 12 were positive for cocaine and the results of the drug test on 19 Sep 12 were positive for cocaine and benzoyllecgonine. (Att. 21)

Contact Card ACC [REDACTED] with the name of Joseph Warnke, who is a Chicago Police Officer, was the person stopped for a field interview on 28 Aug 12, at 1010 hours. The reason for the contact was that Officers Michael Sanchez and Michael Rivera responded to a call of a domestic disturbance at [REDACTED] N. Hermitage Ave. The officers were met by Officer Warnke who related to them that he was in the process of an acrimonious divorce with his wife, [REDACTED]. Officer Warnke stated to the officers that on 28 Aug 12, at approximately 0815 hours, he was in the dry cleaners at [REDACTED] N. Oakley picking up his clothes. At that time Ms. [REDACTED] approached him and started to argue with him about child custody. Officer Warnke stated to Ms. [REDACTED] that he wanted to avoid an argument and that she continued to argue loudly. Officer Warnke left the scene and relocated to [REDACTED] N. Hermitage Ave. where his daughter goes to school. The responding officers were unable to verify the incident as both parties were not on the scene. Beats 1410, 1430 and 1499 notified. (Att. 22)

In a statement with IPRA, Officer Joseph Warnke stated that he and [REDACTED] have been married for approximately five years and have a four-year-old daughter, [REDACTED] from the marriage. Officer Warnke further stated Ms. [REDACTED] developed an addiction to prescription amphetamines as well as cocaine. Officer Warnke attended counseling and attempted to get Ms. [REDACTED] into rehab but instead of going to rehab, Ms. [REDACTED] filed for divorce. Ms. [REDACTED] and Officer Warnke were sharing custody of [REDACTED] at the time of Officer Warnke's statement. Officer Warnke moved out of the marital residence at [REDACTED] N. Milwaukee sometime in July 2012.

Officer Warnke further stated that on 28 Aug 12, at approximately 0830 hours, he had dropped off [REDACTED] at summer camp at [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] and Cortland. After Officer Warnke dropped off [REDACTED] he went to the dry cleaner he has always used that is not far from his former residence of [REDACTED] N. Milwaukee; to drop off his shirts and a suit. As Officer Warnke walked out of the cleaners, Ms. [REDACTED] turned the corner on Oakley and walked right toward Officer Warnke. Ms. [REDACTED] began talking and Officer Warnke told her he was dropping off his dry cleaning and did not want anything from her. Ms. [REDACTED] then asked Officer Warnke why was he doing this to her. According to Officer Warnke, Ms. [REDACTED] was referring to an emergency motion he filed for sole custody and restrictive visitation of [REDACTED] because of her drug levels that had gone up. When asked if he contacted Ms. [REDACTED] via telephone one 28 Aug 12, Officer Warnke responded, "I honestly don't know." Officer Warnke contended that Ms. [REDACTED] had restricted visitation of [REDACTED] because of her drug use. Officer Warnke stated that he felt that Ms. [REDACTED] purposely approached him because her lawyers wanted her to file complaints with the Department against him. Officer Warnke's attorney submitted the drug tests of Ms. [REDACTED] that were administered on 22 Aug 12 and 19 Sep 12 which documented positive results for cocaine and benzoylecgonine. Officer Warnke denied the allegations made against him. (Att. 30)

CONCLUSION:

Accused: Officer Joseph Warnke

Allegations # 1-3: Unfounded – The complainant, [REDACTED], alleged that on 28 Aug 12 Officer Warnke harassed her via telephone, harassed her in that he followed her as she jogged in her neighborhood, and violated a Court Order that prohibits him from being in the vicinity of her residence or to engage in an in-person conversation with her unless for the purpose of the pick-up or drop-off of their daughter, [REDACTED]. Ms. [REDACTED] credibility is more than questionable as she did not provide any evidence, physical or otherwise of a harassing telephone call and IPRA obtained documentation which related that Ms. [REDACTED] has tested positive for cocaine twice both shortly before and after the date of the incident. Ms. [REDACTED] failed to disclose this fact to IPRA. For these reasons, Allegations 1 and 2 must be Unfounded. Furthermore, the investigation revealed that Officer Warnke had been at his drycleaners, located in the vicinity of Ms. [REDACTED]'s residence, when they had the verbal exchange as she alleged. Officer Warnke submitted documentation stating that he was in the area of his drycleaner at the time of the incident and the two met by chance. The Court Order filed by Ms. [REDACTED] stipulates in 5) neither party shall come to the other party's residence for any reason except for pick-up or drop-off [REDACTED]. The Court Order was entered on 29 Aug 12 and was not in effect on 28 Aug 12. Therefore, Officer Warnke did not violate a Court Order and the R/I recommends that Allegation 3 also be classified as Unfounded.

INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY
